LOCATION

The property is located on Sommerville Road in the sought after and upmarket residential area of St Andrews in Bristol. The surrounding area has a mix of detached, semi-detached and terraced residential homes and the property is located just off St Andrews Park next to B & A Church.

The property is less than 2 miles from Bristol city centre and there is excellent access to the motorway network via the M32 which leads to the M4 and the rest of the motorway network. The nearest railway station is Montpelier which is a short walk or drive from the property and has connections to Bristol Temple Meads Railway Station.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a church hall which we understand was constructed in the late 1800s.

The property is arranged over ground and lower ground floors. The ground floor comprises a large hall with a stage, office room and kitchen facilities. The lower ground floor comprises a large meeting room with kitchen facilities and WC facilities. The ground floor is accessed off Sommerville Road and also via a door to the rear. The lower ground floor is accessed via internal stairs and also benefits from its own access via an entrance off Sommerville Road.

This building sits within a site of approximately 0.098 acres and there is an adjacent parcel of land (0.09 acres) potentially available by way of separate negotiation.

PLANNING

We assume that the property benefits from planning consent for the existing use as a church hall used for a variety of community and education related uses.

TENURE

The property is offered for sale long leasehold by way of a lease drawn for a term of 1000 years from 1871.

PRICE

Guide price of £550,000 exclusive.
