LOCATION

The property is situated on Broad Street in the heart of Bristol city centre. Bristol Temple Meads Railway Station is approximately a 10-minute walk from the property. There is a wide variety of amenities close at hand including Broadmead Shopping Centre, Cabot Circus, St Nicholas's Market and a host of shops, restaurants, cafes and hotels. DESCRIPTION

The properties comprise what would originally appear to have been constructed as attractive Georgian town houses, circa 1770, forming part of a terrace fronting onto Broad Street.

The properties appear to have been occupied and used as offices for several decades and currently interlink internally. Numbers 23 & 24 have been altered internally and share one main central staircase and there is a secondary staircase between the ground and first floors. The property provides accommodation over ground, basement, first, second and third floors. Internally, the accommodation is fitted and finished as offices throughout.

There is an enclosed courtyard to the rear of the property which is accessed internally from the rear and externally via a pedestrian access to the side.

A fantastic opportunity for an office occupier, alternative commercial use or redevelopment!
